Summary

Backend engineer with seven years of experience building payment and data platforms that handle billions of requests a month. I like turning slow, fragile systems into boring, reliable ones.

Professional Experience

Mar 2023 – Present Seattle, WA	Senior Software Engineer Stripe - Lead a team of 5 engineers that owns the ledger service recording every card payment, about 4 billion entries a month - Moved the ledger from a single PostgreSQL cluster to a sharded design with no downtime, cutting p99 write latency from 180 ms to 35 ms - Wrote the team's on-call guide and cut pages per week from 14 to 3 by fixing the five noisiest alerts at their source
Jun 2020 – Feb 2023 Seattle, WA	Software Engineer II Zillow - Built the Kafka pipeline that feeds new listings into search within 90 seconds of an agent publishing them, down from 20 minutes - Replaced a nightly batch job with incremental updates in Go, saving $40,000 a month in compute - Mentored 3 new graduates through their first year on the team
Jul 2018 – May 2020 Bellevue, WA	Software Engineer Expedia Group - Added price caching to the hotel search API in Java, raising its cache hit rate from 40% to 85% - Wrote contract tests between search and booking that caught 12 breaking changes before release
Jun 2017 – Sep 2017 Mountain View, CA	Software Engineering Intern Intuit Built an internal tool that flags tax form fields left out of new releases, used by 30 QA engineers
